Contents:

1. Introduction: Methods for the Archaeology of Religion
   Lars Fogelin

2. Steps toward an Archaeology of Taboo
   Severin M. Fowles

3. Animism and Sacrifice: Reconstructing Moche Religion through Architecture, Iconography, and Archaeological Features
   Erica Hill

4. Tradition in Contexts: A Reassessment of the Canonical Acceptance of Art as Religion in Proto-Palatial Phaistos
   Joanne M. A. Murphy

5. Re-envisioning Ancient Maya Ritual Assemblages
   James E. Brady and Polly A. Peterson

6. Midwiving Meaning: Assessing the Use of Ancient Greek Terra-cotta Figurines as Childbirth Votives
   Susan Wise

7. Exploring Inca State Religion through Material Metaphor
   Tamara L. Bray

8. Charcoal as a Proxy for Use-Intensity in Ancient Maya Cave Ritual
   Holley Moyes

9. Capturing Mortuary Ritual: An Attempt to Harmonize Archaeological Method and Theory
   Liv Nilsson Stutz

10. Ground Truthing Ritual: Apparent Successes and Subsequent Questions
    Barbara A. Crass

    Nicola Laneri

12. Locating American Indian Religion at Cahokia and Beyond
    Thomas E. Emerson, Susan M. Alt, and Timothy R. Pauketat

13. The "Disjunctive Approach" to the Archaeological Analysis of Ritual Politics
    Edward Swenson

14. Life Outside the Temple: Reconstructing Traditional Hawaiian Ritual and Religion through Ritualized Practices
    Mark D. McCoy
| 15. | Rock Art and the Study of Ancient Religions in Southeastern North America
    | George Sabo III |
| 16. | The Context of Religion at Cahokia: The Mound 34 Case
    | John E. Kelly, James A. Brown, and Lucretia S. Kelly |
| 17. | Midewiwin Myths, Missaukee Earthworks: Living Traditions and Material Evidence in Archaeologies of Religion
    | Meghan C. L. Howey |
| 18. | On Text, Materiality, and the Tibetan Buddhist Religious Architecture at Piyang
    | Mark Aldenderfer |