Contents:

I. Project Setting

1. Introduction

2. Biophysical Environment

3. Historical Background

4. Research Design

5. Methods

II. Summary of Survey and Excavations

6. The Salug-Songton Site

7. The Unginao-Uyulan Site

8. The Teteto-Guata Site

9. The Tatgua Site

10. Japanese Era Remains

III. Analysis and Interpretation

11. Ceramics

12. Stone and Coral Tools

13. Shell and Bone Artifacts

14. Nontool Marine Shell

15. Fish Bone

16. Archaeobotanical Samples

17. Phytolith Samples

18. Prehistoric Mortuary Practices and Human Biology

19. Historic Period Artifacts

20. Summary and Synthesis
Appendix

A. Nonfish Vertebrate Remains